DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-10 are allowed.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-5; prior art fails to disclose or suggest, inter alia, wherein, the DC converter comprises an actuating signal generating portion having an AND logic circuit; and the AND logic circuit is supplied with a power interruption detecting signal and an actuating command, and when the input AC power is not applied to the AC/DC converter and the actuating command is ON, the load is supplied with the DC power from the DC power storage means using a path through the second terminal, the DC converter, the first terminal and the DC/DC converter in order.

Claims 5-10; prior art fails to disclose or suggest, inter alia, wherein, the DC converter comprising a back-up power actuating unit including an AND logic circuit, and where differing inputs of the AND logic circuit are supplied with a power interruption detecting signal and a back-up power actuating command signal, and when both the power interruption detecting signal indicates that input AC power is not applied to the AC/DC converter and the actuating command signal enables back-up power, the load is supplied with the DC power from the DC power storage unit using a path through the second terminal, the DC converter, the first terminal and the DC/DC converter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
